MAKING HISTORY statement

Making History is an all-inclusive open call exhibition surveying the Bushwick art scene and celebrating one of the most concentrated and diverse artist communities worldwide. Curators Krista Saunders Senna of Ground Floor Gallery, and Dexter Wimberly of Independent Curators International, have taken on the challenge of creating cohesive visual narratives out of this pluralistic collection of works. The exhibition will be documented with a first-of-its-kind book including critical essays by prominent writers.

The title of the exhibition was inspired by Loren Munk's manifesto History by Exclusion, Illuminating the "Dark Matter" of the Art World, 2006. The exhibition explores an inclusive model of history and is the first in a series of events that AIB plans to produce on that theme, throughout the entire Bushwick community, in celebration of its 10th Anniversary.

Participating artists include:

Loren Munk, Tamara Gonzales, Ward Shelley, Lori Ellison, William Powhida, Lisa Corinne Davis, Dan Zeller, Susan Silas, Don Voisine, Meg Hitchcock, Rob de Oude, Lisa Levy, Julie Torres, Ben Godward, Kate Teale, Brian Novatny, Enrico Gomez, Oriane Stender, Matt Fisher, Ryan Dewalt, Nao Matsumoto, Linda Herritt, Catherine Kirkpatrick, Will Hutnick, Gary Petersen, Ruth Hardinger and Deborah Brown.

The complete list of 400 artists follows below.

AIB 2015 BENEFIT

On May 10, the AIB 2015 Benefit will be held at Storefront Ten Eyck, and all artworks included in Making History will be raffled. Proceeds of the event will fund the production of Arts in Bushwick's 10th anniversary book and year-round community and educational activities. The night will boast a full bar and hors d'oeuvres, and will be emceed by Lisa Levy, local artist and self-proclaimed psychotherapist, and artist Ben Boothby. Beginning April 15, tickets for the raffle will be for sale at the gallery and online at artsinbushwick.org/events/makinghistoryexhibition.

AIB/BOS ANNUAL PRINT

The 2015 AIB/BOS team is proud to announce the annual limited edition prints, featuring works of the renowned artists Meryl Meisler and Rico Gatson. Meisler's documentary photographs of the neighborhood date back to the seventies, when she was a public school art teacher in Bushwick, and Gatson has been living and working in Bushwick for over eleven years. Printing services are being donated by Rayographix.

MAKING HISTORY is sponsored by New Amsterdam Vodka, Brooklyn Brewery, Mominette, Handmade Frames, Tree Bottle Wine, RX Rayographix, Henry Wines.
